The functionality is great but your UI is lacking a bit. I know you don't like front end but I think you can maybe add a background?

I like the green buttons though!

Also you forgot to also display the products. You're only displaying the farmers on the Employee account.

But other than that I think it's doing well! Look you've even added buttons and changed their colours!

I like it. It's simple and sweet (but maybe a background)
